the boy who ate dog biscuits a stepping stone

Savanna Bunkett exposes government cover-ups on her award-winning show "The Bunk Stops Here" when she digs into a rumor about a top-secret government project that's producing super soldiers for the president. She suddenly finds herself on an assassin's hit list—she's the man who has to keep the truth hidden. Navy SEAL Lieutenant Trace Hunter is the only soldier to survive Project 24 after refusing a direct order from the president. He was branded a traitor and his career imploded after the sexy reporter turned him into a national headline. He now works undercover for Shadow Force International, a secret group of former SEALs helping those who have nowhere else to turn. Using his enhanced skills to fight for justice and protect the innocent, his first assignment is to protect Savanna from the one man who wants them both dead: the president. One wrong move, and they'll be silenced forever. Helping Savanna is the last thing Trace wants to do, but her unwavering determination to expose the president's dark truth matches his own. She's his one chance to set the record straight, and he's her only chance at survival. When their mutual enemy closes in, can they put the past behind them and trust each other even if it means losing their hearts? Or will secrets, lies, and forbidden passions cost them everything?

About the series: Shadow Force International is a group of former SEALs abandoned by the United States and labeled as rogue operatives. Now they work as a black ops team, performing private intelligence, security, and paramilitary missions for those who have nowhere else to turn. Some of them find romance along the way and lose their hearts protecting those they love at all costs. The SEALs of Shadow Force will take you on undercover and make you risk it all. Meet the men and women that make up the Shadow Force International family under the supervision of Beatrice Reese, the former SEALs, spies, and tech experts who risk their lives every day against terrorists, crime lords, and...

in tfs extra book 28 beatrice upshaw shares her memories of growing up in county line a biscuit for your shoe captures the lore of a community which began as a freedom colony west of nacogdoches in east texas the book is a memoir but it shares more than merely family memories of significant events it tells of beliefs home remedies folk games and customs as well as the importance of religion and education to a community of like minded people the narrative is a rich source of colloquial language and proverbial sayings that help define a group of people and their strong sense of place Richard Orton was first introduced to County Line by F E Ab Abernethy, the secretary editor of the TFS for nearly four decades. Richard eventually did a photographic book on the people of the community, the upshaws of County Line, an American family but he believed that Beatrice Upshaw’s memoir should be developed into a separate work that could be shared with an audience larger than just family and friends. Richard’s introduction explains the value of the stories Beatrice Upshaw presents in a biscuit for your shoe; they are personal but the overall narrative speaks collectively about the perseverance and innovation of many people who found a way to not only survive but to thrive in East Texas.

Home is where the heart is. Beryl was the first Farley clan bride finding a home in the arms of loving, attentive elder son Tony yet even now wrapped in Tony’s embrace, Beryl has never quite been able to forget the past she ran away from nor the shocking family secret she tried to bury with Tony away fighting the Jerries alongside his brothers. It’s up to Beryl and her sisters in law to keep the family afloat. Hard, gruelling work doesn’t faze her but the sudden arrival of a devastating letter does. Will Beryl be able to hold her family together and face up to her past or will the war take away the one thing she holds most dear, the one person she never thought she deserved? The perfect family saga set on the Newcastle streets that inspired Catherine Cookson’s bestselling classic The Fifteen Streets. This is the second in brand new series for fans of Nancy Revell, Elaine Everest, and Daisy Styles.

The biscuit factory in Haddie’s hometown is absolutely 100% not a super secret science lab or a portal to another dimension with orange fluffy monsters. Oh no, definitely not or is it a laugh out loud biscuit bonkers adventure for fans of my brother is a superhero and kid normal winner of the Northern Writers Award. I live near a biscuit factory. Sounds like a dream come true, right? But it’s not all fun and jammie dodgers. You see, the biscuit factory is really a super secret science lab everyone pretends it makes biscuits. It just makes life easier until today because the biscuit factory tore a hole through dimensions and now huge orange monsters are climbing through. Oh, and if we don’t do something, the world is going to go kabloom in the next thirty minutes. Not on my watch. You coming so funny you’ll snort custard creams out of your nose. Mr. J Dodger.
